

John D. “Jack” Hoblitzell, III

Jack Hoblitzell joined Kay Casto & Chaney in 2010. While Mr. Hoblitzell’s practice is litigation focused, additional service areas include labor and employment, insurance coverage and bad faith, directors and officers’ liability, deliberate intent, data privacy and security, construction, architect, engineer, and design professional liability, as well as municipal law matters.

Mr. Hoblitzell attended Woodberry Forest School and then enrolled at Trinity College, where he majored in History. In 2000, he received a Bachelor of Arts degree and graduated Phi Beta Kappa.

From there, Mr. Hoblitzell attended the West Virginia University College of Law and took part in the Clinical Law Program. In 2003, he earned a Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.), and he was the recipient of numerous awards and inducted into distinguished societies such as the Order of the Coif and the Mountain Honorary, the ranking honorary at WVU.

Within the legal profession, Mr. Hoblitzell is a member of the West Virginia State Bar, the West Virginia Bar Association, the Defense Trial Counsel of West Virginia, and the Defense Research Institute. He is actively involved in the community, serving as an Elder of The First Presbyterian Church of Charleston, and as a member of the board of directors for the Charleston Ballet.
