

Curtis G. Power, III

Curtis G. Power, III is a member of the firm and concentrate his litigation practice in the areas of health care law, insurance defense, medical malpractice defense, and professional liability defense. Mr. Power is resident in the firm's Martinsburg, West Virginia office.

Mr. Power possesses an extraordinary wealth of knowledge and experience in health care litigation. He practices at the trial and appellate level, and he is admitted to practice in both Virginia and West Virginia (Supreme Court of Virginia, Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Virginia, U.S. District Courts for the North and Southern Districts of West Virginia).

Prior to joining Kay Casto & Chaney PLLC, Mr. Power was a partner at the firm of Bowles Rice McDavid Graff and Love. He also served as Counsel to the West Virginia Department of Health, as a former Assistant Attorney General (WV), and as an Assistant Prosecutor in Berkeley County (WV).

Mr. Power earned a J.D., West Virginia University College of Law (1980), and he received a B.A., Washington & Lee University (1977). He is a member of the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys, the Defense Trial Counsel of West Virginia, the Defense Research Institute, the Winchester-Frederick County (VA) Bar Association, and the Eastern Panhandle Bar Association.

Mr. Power is recognized by his peers in The Best Lawyers in America® for his work in the areas of Medical Malpractice Law – Defendants.