

Cynthia L. Wilson

Cynthia Wilson (Cindy), after serving as in-house counsel for Mountaineer Gas Company from 1993-1995, enjoyed an extensive 26-year career with the West Virginia Public Service Commission prior to joining Kay Casto & Chaney in 2021.

Ms. Wilson regularly practices before the Public Service Commission on regulatory matters involving water, sewer, electric, gas, and telecommunications utilities. Her clients include businesses, municipalities and public service districts.

Ms. Wilson is admitted to practice before the state courts in West Virginia, the United States District Court for both the Southern and Northern Districts of West Virginia, the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

Ms. Wilson is a 1981 summa cum laude graduate of Marshall University obtaining a Bachelor of Arts degree and thereafter obtained her law degree from the University of Cincinnati where she was awarded the Henry A. Morrill Prize for Constitutional Law and the Lawrence Maxwell Prize for Appellate Advocacy.

Ms. Wilson is involved with P.E.O., a philanthropic educational organization that provides scholarships, grants and loans to women pursuing higher education, a former board member of Mountaineer Montessori School in Charleston, and a former clerk of session and elder at the First Presbyterian Church also in Charleston.