

Sarah N. McAllister

Sarah N. McAllister is a dedicated attorney with Kay Casto & Chaney PLLC, where she focuses her practice on real estate law, including residential and commercial transactions, contract preparation, and estate planning. With more than a decade of legal experience, Sarah brings a strong foundation in advocacy and client service to every case.

Before joining Kay Casto & Chaney in 2025 following the merger with Trump & Trump, LC, Sarah practiced with Trump & Trump from 2022 to 2024, and with Conrad Legal Corporation from 2014 to 2021. Her early career included internships and student attorney roles that deepened her knowledge in both civil and criminal legal practice, including work with the United States Attorney's Office and the WVU College of Law Clinical Law Program's Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Clinic.

Sarah earned her Juris Doctor from West Virginia University College of Law in 2014, where she served as Senior Notes Editor for the West Virginia Law Review and was awarded CALI Awards for excellence in Elder Law and Legal Research and Writing. She holds a Bachelor of Science from Shepherd University (2011), where she was inducted into both the Alpha Kappa Delta and Pi Sigma Alpha honor societies for academic achievement.

Sarah is licensed to practice law in West Virginia and Maryland and is admitted to the U.S. District Courts for both the Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia. She is known for her attention to detail, commitment to ethical practice, and ability to support clients with clarity and compassion.

Law. Business. Life.
