

Jenna H. Perkins

Jenna H. Perkins is an experienced attorney and civil mediator with over 30 years of litigation and trial experience in state and federal courts throughout West Virginia. Her practice focuses on family law, civil mediation, and complex litigation, drawing on a distinguished career spanning private practice, public service, and judicial appointments. Ms. Perkins has served as a partner in multiple litigation firms, an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney specializing in crimes against children, and as a Mental Hygiene Commissioner for the First Judicial Circuit of West Virginia. She is known for her strategic advocacy, courtroom leadership, and thoughtful approach to resolving complex and sensitive legal matters. Ms. Perkins is admitted to practice before all West Virginia appellate courts and the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

